

U.S. Silica Announces Price Increases on Industrial and Specialty Products

November 30, 2021

KATY, Texas, Nov. 30, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- U.S. Silica Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: SLCA) announced today that its Industrial and Specialty Products business will increase prices for most of its non-contracted silica sand, aplite, diatomaceous earth and clay products used primarily in glass, foundry, paints, coatings, elastomers, roofing, chemicals, recreation, building products, agricultural, pet litter and other applications.

Price increases will range from 6% to 14%, depending on the product and grade, and go into effect for shipments beginning February 1, 2022.

These price increases are necessary to help offset significant and continuing cost increases in energy, labor, transportation, materials and manufacturing costs.
